WORK EXPERIENCE

Marketing Strategy Assistant (Full-time) DY ENG , Gimpo, South Korea	Mar 2026–Present
- Strengthen SEO and SEM strategy through Distinctive Brand Assets and Category Entry Points to support lead generation, conversion improvement, and sales growth. - Apply information asymmetry, loss aversion, and bounded rationality insights to identify and reduce customer decision drop-off points. - Analyze Naver Search Ads performance across keyword and expanded-search campaigns to evaluate CTR, CPC, search behavior, and lead-generation opportunities. - Enhance brainstorming and strategic collaboration through active team networking and cross-functional communication.
Marketing Strategy Intern (Part-time) DY Engineering , Gimpo, South Korea	Feb 2025–Mar 2026
- Analyzed core product DBAs, including ice thermal storage systems and heat exchangers, to support stronger B2B market positioning. - Supported new project development by maintaining brand consistency while exploring adjacent market opportunities. - Developed brand extension ideas to minimize internal cannibalization and strengthen portfolio clarity across product categories.
Graduate IT Support Assistant (Part-time) Missouri State University – Computer Services , Springfield, MO	Aug 2022–May 2024
- Maintained lab software, system updates, and computer equipment while supporting Windows, Mac, and related campus technologies. - Communicated professionally with coworkers, supervisors, and customers to resolve technical issues and maintain a positive service environment.

PROJECTS AND RESEARCH

Amazon Review Sentiment Analysis Baruch College – Marketing Analytics (MKT9737)	Sep–Oct 2025
- Applied text mining to identify emotional signals behind consumer judgments and expectation gaps such as taste, protein claims, and convenience. - Translated sentiment patterns into clearer message-framing implications for consumer persuasion and product communication.
Planet Fitness Market Research Baruch College – Marketing Research (MKT9702)	Jun–Aug 2025
- Conducted segmentation and behavioral analysis of NYC students’ gym motivations and barriers using survey data (n=176). - Built frameworks connecting emotional and financial priorities to reduce participation barriers across student segments.

Strategic Marketing Framework

Availability-centered marketing strategy grounded in Category Entry Points, Distinctive Brand Assets, mental and physical availability, information asymmetry, loss aversion, bounded rationality, and decision-threshold analysis.
